Congressman Livingston Brings Before the House

A Resolution to Ascertain Whether England Has Advanced Outposts

On Disputed Territory Since December 17—On Objection the Resolution Went to the Committee on Foreign Affairs—The New House Rules.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—In the house Thursday Mr. Livingston (dem., Ga.) asked unanimous consent for consideration of the following concurrent resolution:

"That the president of the United States is hereby requested to forthwith ascertain whether Great Britain is advancing her outposts on the territory in dispute between her colony of British Guiana and the republic of Venezuela, or is reinforcing posts, heretofore established, with troops, police or ordinance; and should the president become cognizant of the fact that a British military or police force is advancing to invade or reinforce, or since the 17th day of December last, has invaded or reinforced posts formerly occupied within said disputed territory, he demand the immediate withdrawal of said soldiers and the reduction of the police force in said territory to not a greater number than occupied the British outposts on the aforesaid 17th day of December, 1895.

Mr. Boutwell (rep., Me.) objected and the resolution went to the committee on foreign affairs.

Mr. Henderson (rep., Ia.) stated that the committee on rules had concluded its work and would report the new rules to the house Friday for its consideration.

Mr. Blue (rep., Kan.) from the committee on appropriations, reported the general pension bill for the year ending June 30, 1897, and gave notice that he would call it up after the report of the committee on rules had been disposed of Friday.

At 12:25 o'clock the house adjourned until Friday.

ENGLAND DEFIANT.

Guards Forwarded on Venezuela Soil Since the President's Message.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—A special to the Herald, from Caracas, Venezuela, says: The government has received news from the Venezuelan boundary stations, near the frontier of British Guiana, to the effect that 100 men of the British colonial police have been sent to guard the English station in the disputed territory. The administration regards this action as a direct menace on the part of England, following as it does so closely the message of the president of the United States, relating to the boundary question. The government officials say, however, that notwithstanding this report that Great Britain is fortifying her position in apparent defiance of the republic, great prudence will be observed by Venezuelan officers in the territory, and an attempt will be made to avoid all perilous disputes. The point to which the British police have been dispatched is that first ordered to be fortified with Maxim guns by Mr. Chamberlain, the English minister for the colonies.

The Report Denied.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The colonial office has issued a note declaring that the statement printed in a New York newspaper Thursday, in an alleged cable dispatch from Caracas, Venezuela, that British troops and cannons have arrived at Guiana, is absolutely unfounded.

Want Troops Sent to the Frontier.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—A special cable dispatch to the Mail and Express from Caracas, Venezuela, says: "The newspapers of Caracas Thursday afternoon demand that the government shall send troops to the Guiana frontier immediately."

Wants the Convention of 1884 Abrogated.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—A dispatch to the Globe from Berlin says it is rumored that the Transvaal government has intimated to Dr. Leyds, the Transvaal secretary of state, who is now in Berlin, that one of the conditions of the settlement of the present difficulties would be the abrogation of the convention of 1884 by which England exercises suzerainty over the Transvaal republic. The dispatch also says that the question of laying a telegraph cable affording direct communication between Germany and the Transvaal is being discussed.

Portugal Will Remain Neutral.

LISBON, Jan. 9.—A dispatch from Lorenzo Marques, Portuguese, South Africa, says that the British gun boat Thrush and the German cruiser Seeadler are now in Delagoa bay. It is reported that the government of Portugal has decided to remain absolutely neutral in the disputes between Germany and England regarding the South African republic, permitting neither to land troops at Delagoa bay or to march them across Portuguese South African territory.

Dead Stowaways.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—In the tank of the steamer Hermann, which arrived at Hull from Buenos Ayres Thursday was found 15 stowaways. Six of them were dead and the remaining nine were in an insensible condition and would have died in a few hours.

Eight-Year-Old Boy Burned to Death.

LEADVILLE, Col., Jan. 9.—The Palmer house, on South Park road, was burned Thursday morning. The eight-year-old son of Mrs. Cornwell was burned to death. The charred remains were found Thursday. There were many narrow escapes.

Died From His Injuries.

CHIFFLE CREEK, Col., Jan. 9.—Wm. Corbin, who was rescued from the Annie Lee disaster, died Thursday morning from his injuries. None of the other entombed miners have been found.

Your Boy Won't Live a Month.

So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 54 Mill St., South Gardner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had lung trouble, following Typhoid Malaria, and he spent three hundred and seventy-five dollars with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for lung trouble. Trial Bottles Free at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

Poeticus—"Have you read Shakespeare's 'Love's Labor Lost'?" Cynicus—"No; but I've taken a girl to the theater and had her talk to the man next her all through the show."—N. Y. Herald.

"I must be just lovely to be the two-headed girl," said Ethel. "Just think of being able to look straight ahead of oneself and look back to see what the other woman has on at the same instant!"—Indianapolis Journal.
